

NORDIC EXPERTS

Hawk Quality Management Software (HQMS)

The HQMS will help companies identify areas for improvement and manage change to secure learning and growth towards sustainable shareholder, employee and customer satisfaction levels.

Key Product Features & User

- . Deviations, customer claims, non-conformities and projected upgrading are followed up.
- . Improvement all kind of internal procedures.
- . Document, trace and capture trends and losses related to quality deficiency

The capability of an organization to manage performance and improve quality. Enables companies to eliminate paper-based quality processes

Got a question? We're here to help

™ contact@nordicexperts.com

About Nordic Experts

A global company with access to wide pool of talented software engineers and consultants is what we are. Nordic Experts provides not only software development capability, but also IT solutions for your business. We aspire to create value-added services to our customers based on our rich experience in the industry. Nordic Experts makes it possible for organizations to upgrade the sustainability and safety of their businesses. We offer technical assurance and classification alongside software solution to the oil and gas, healthcare, construction and power companies.

Learn more about us at www.nordicexperts.com